WANTS WILSON TO MAKE SPEECH

General Assembly Extends Invitation in Joint Resolution

NEW STATE GAME LAW

Democratic Members Select Judges, Among Them J. B. T. Thornton for the 16th Circuit.

Richmond, Va. Jan. 15.—Announcement of members of the House committees by Speaker Houston, the introduction of a far-reaching State game bill and concurrence of the House in a Senate joint resolution for the extension of an invitation to President Wilson to deliver an address were the features of yesterday's session of the General Assembly.

The Senate Committee which considered the petition of Senator Jordan, of Augusta, for a seat in the Democratic caucus, failed to report, and the upper branch adjourned after accepting a silver water service sent by Mrs. Echols, widow of the late Edward Echols, former Lieut.-Governor and member of the Senate from Staunton.

Delegate R. H. Willis, Roanoke; Hugh White, Rockbridge, and others are patrons of the State Game bill, which empowers the Governor to appoint a State Game Warden on July 1 1916, for two years. The warden then to be elected by the people every four years. He is to be the chief of the proposed department of game and inland fisheries. Deputies are to be named in every city and county. Home license will be $1; county, $3; nonresident, $10, and alien, $20 a year.

At a joint caucus of the Democratic members of the Senate and House last night the following State officers and judges were nominated and will be elected by the General Assembly. Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the Alexandria Circuit, was renominated to succeed himself.

Auditor of Public Accounts—C. Lee Moore.

Second Auditor—Rosewell Page.

Superintendent of Public Printing—David Bottom.

Judges—Fourth Circuit, Judge Robert G. Southall; Eighth Circuit, Judge John W. Fishburne; Twelfth Circuit, Judge Joseph W. Chinn, jr.; Sixteenth Circuit, Judge J. B. T. Thornton; Twentieth Circuit, Judge W. W. Moffert; Twenty-fourth Circuit, Judge H. A. W. Skeen, and Thirtieth Circuit, Judge P. H. Dillard.

Corporation Court of Newport News—Judge J. T. Barham.

Civil Justice of Norfolk—James V. Goode.

Civil Justice, of Richmond—William Turpin.

Speaker Houston announced the various committees, including the Moral and Social Welfare Committee, which will take charge of the prohibition laws. J. Fred Birrell, of Alexandria, is chairman of the Committee on Claims.

The renomination of Judge J. B. T. Thornton to succeed himself as mentioned in the above dispatch from Richmond has been expected. There was no opposition and it was agreed among the attorneys who practice before his court that he has made an excellent judge and was in every way worthy to be re-elected.

Judge Thornton was last elected January 15th. 1907, for a term of eight years. His term will expire on January 31st. when he will enter upon his new term of eight years. Judge Thornton succeeded Judge Charles E. Nicol, who resigned to become a candidate for Congress against Representative Charles C. Carlin. His circuit comprises the city of Alexandria, and the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince William. His home is in Manassas.

Judge Thornton was a visitor to Alexandria today in attendance upon the annual session of the Bar Association of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit. When the news of his renomination were heard by the lawyers he was heartily congratulated.

INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

German Sympathizer Face Two Years Imprisonment in Jail

New York, Jan. 15—These were the big developments yesterday in the international spy plot investigation:

First—A woman and four men, including a relative of one of the most important officials of the Deutsche Bank of Berlin, were indicted by the Federal grand jury. They are charged with conspiracy to violate the customs laws in an attempt to ship contraband rubber to the German government.

Second—Department of Justice officials received information apparently establishing the identity of the spy responsible for the $4,000,000 fire in the Bethlehem Steel Plant on November 10. The steamship Vaubban, which arrives tomorrow or Monday, is expected to bring the full story of the spy's arrest on the high seas by the British.

Third—An inter-relation between the rubber conspiracy, the Fay bomb plot and New Jersey thefts of goods intended for the allies was established. This through the discovery that a West Side politician was an agent of all three groups.

The five indicted in the rubber plot face jail sentences of two years each and fines of $10,000 apiece. They are:

Edward Weber, cousin of Albert Weber, chief of the rubber department of the Deutsche Bank, official repository of the German government. Paul Schmidt, partner with Weber in the Rubber and Guayule Agency, Inc. 108 Walter street; Max Jaeger, a German automobile manufacturer; Richard Wohlberg, a cement and rubber manufacturer of the Bronx, and Mrs. Annie Dekkers, a native of Holland.

FLOODS IN HOLLAND

Dike Breaks and Inhabiants Forced to Leave Homes

Amsterdam, Jan. 15—The Telegraaf reports that the Zuider Zee dike at Katwoude has burst and that Zuidpolder has been flooded. The inhabitants fled to Edam, which also is partly flooded, the newspaper adds.

At 7 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm bell was rung at Broeck, also in the province of North Holland, about 6 miles northeast of Amsterdam as the flood was pouring in with terrific force.

Many farms were completely inundated, the inhabitants proceeding in boats to surrounding villages. There was great consternation in the waterland district as the water came over the dike, and the inhabitants are fleeing to Amsterdam.

Volendam is entirely flooded, and Monnikendam, on the mainland, and the island of Marken are under water.

A later message from Edam says that the dike protecting Polderezeevang is in danger, and that if it breaks the result will be the flooding of the greater part of north Holland.

SUICIDE OF FARMER

Doctor Pronounces Doom Near and Sufferer Ends Agony With Bullet

Newton, N. J., Jan. 15—It was the verdict of the doctor late Wednesday afternoon that Robert Roe, 63 years old, and suffering for months from cancer, could not live till morning. The relatives were called to the dying man's bedside in the farmhouse in Fredon township and they tearfully bade him farewell.

The sick man was left alone, suffering a torture that would go on, he knew not how long, and the terror of which he could judge only by what he had passed through. On the bureau was a revolver which he procured and sent a bullet into his brain. He was later found dead.

CARRANZA TO BE GIVEN A CHANCE

Administration Not to be Stampeded Into Intervention Now

G. O. P. WANTS ACTION

Washington, Jan. 15.—General Carranza and the defacto government of Mexico are to be given full opportunity, without intervention from the United States, to run to earth the murderers of American citizens at Santa Ysabel and to demonstrate ability to restore order and protect foreign rights in the southern republic. This was the outstanding fact after a meeting of the Cabinet, a conference between President Wilson and Chairman Stone of the Senate Foreign Relation Committee and another day of stirring debate in the Senate chamber yesterday.

The President, supported by his Cabinet and the Democratic leaders in Congress, is declared to be determined that the American Government shall not be stampeded by war talk and cries of vengeance into rushing an army across the Rio Grande to destroy in its infancy the de facto government, which the United States with the co-operation of Pan-American nations, aided in establishing after the Mexican nation had been torn by revolution for years.

In the Senate Administration leaders firmly outlined the position of the Government in the face of denunciation from the Republican side; and another resolution directing intervention, proposed by Senator Works, of California. At the State Department officials were vigilant in their watch over the situation, awaiting official word from Gen. Carranza in reply to the demand made upon him to seek out and punish the bandit murderers.

While no direct communication from General Carranza had reached the State Department last night, a message from him to Elisco Arredondo, the Mexican Ambassador designate, announced the dispatch of troops to capture the outlaws and his purpose to visit "condign punishment upon every participant in the massacre."

The Mexican embassy was without other advices regarding the bandit hunt. Gen. Obregon was said to be at Queretaro, where he had been summoned for a general conference, the work of running down the Villa forces about Chihuahua being left in the hands of Gens. Gavira and Trevino.

Measures to facilitate the removal of Americans from districts were their lives might be endangered were discussed by department officials with Mr. Arrendondo, who later advised General Carranza by telegraph that every assistance be given such Americans and escorts provided to accompany them into cities where strong garrisons are maintained. He went further than the State Department suggested, recommending that in cases where foreigners objected to leaving they be forcibly removed to points of safety.

When Secretary Lansing was asked whether the United States Government would protect its citizens under such circumstances he replied that it would do so "to the best of its ability." but that in such cases the Government would not be obliged "to use force where people are indiscreet." He compared the situation in Mexico with that in Europe at the beginning of the war, when Americans were ordered out.

Debate in the Senate brought out the positive declarations from Senator Stone, and Senator Lewis, of Illinois, that there would be no countenancing of the demands of Republican leaders for intervention, and both charged the Republicans with insincerity of purpose and seeking to make a political issue. Senator Stone, after his conference with President Wilson, said intervention in Mexico at this time would be monstrous in the face of the fact that the United States had just recognized Carranza. He declared that to intervene would be playing into the hands of Villa and Zapata, who sought for purposes of revenge to make trouble between Carranza and the United States.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The new motor combination fire engine was given its first run last night when it was called out to a burning chimney in Rosemont.

The degrees of the Lodge of Perfection, Scottish Rite Masons, were conferred on a class last night at a meeting of Washington Lodge of Perfection.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary C. Dorsey will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from her home, 526 Queen street, and will be conducted by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

COL. M'GRAW INDICTED.

New Charges Growing Out of Grafton Bank Failure Brought.

Grafton, W. Va., Jan. 15.—After a four day probe of the Grafton Bank case the grand jury made its report here late yesterday. Two of the leading officials of the bank were indicted.

Col. John T. McGraw, Democratic National Committeeman and one of the organizers and a stockholder of the bank, was indicted on a felony charge of three counts. It is charged that he aided Charles R. Durbin, the president, to commit felonies. Mr. Durbin was indicted on three separate charges, of embezzlement on 35 counts

Immediately after the jury had read its report Col. McGraw appeared in court and entered a plea of not guilty The charges were not read to him, as he stated that he had read the indictments personally and was familiar with the charges. He filed bond of $5,000 for his appearance in court for a hearing on January 17.

The Grafton Bank suspended payment a year ago. The management announced that the bank was overloaned but said it was solvent. Col. McGraw stated that the bank was entirely solvent and would reopen and reorganize in a few weeks. When it failed to do so, C. D. Hiatt was appointed receiver and is still engaged in settling up the bank's affairs.

The bank had deposits of $300,000 mostly small accounts, a number of which were paid personally by Col. McGraw, His own liabilities to the bank have not been met as yet, however, alhough it is stated that he has about closed a deal which will enable him to take over the bank and pay all the debts himself.

Charles R. Durbin, the former president, is a brother in law of Col. M'Graw and also was heavily involved it is alleged. He has entered voluntary bankruptcy and his schedule shows liabilities of $250,000.

Several other men also have been driven into bankruptcy here as a result of the bank failure, it is said. Indictments were returned against McGraw and Durbin at the last term of the grand jury, but McGraw's indictment was quashed as were several of the counts against Durbin. A few of the old charges, however, are still in force against him, besides the charges presented yesterday.

LONG AND SHORT KISS

Two Nights in Jail Also Included in Verdict for Woman.

New York, Jan. 15.—For a short kiss and a lingering kiss, which were given to her against her will ,and to pay for the distress of two nights in Harlem prison, Miss Lillian Conkin, a governess, was yesterday awarded $2,500 damage by a jury in Justice Platzek's part of the Supreme Court, where she brought suit against George R. Raufman, a wealthy mining engineer, associated with the Guggenheims for $50,000 damages.

Kaufman who formerly lived in Riverside Drive, where he girl declared he forced the kisses upon her, will receive the news of the verdict on a sick bed in Oakland, Cal., where he is said to be dangerously ill. He offered no defense.

CONTEST FOR THE JUDGESHIP

Legislators Show Deep Interest Between Sims and Lile

OPEN HEADQUARTERS

Friends of Both Candidates Optimistic Concerning Their Favorites' Chances For Position.

Richmond, Jan. 15.—Tightening of the lines in the Sims-Lile contest for the nomination to the Supreme Court bench vacancy to be created by the retirement of Judge Keith next year was the development at the Capitol yesterday that over-shadowed in interest the light pressure of official business that occupied the lawmakers.

Not in years has there been so determined an effort on the part of two well-defined factions to secure for their candidates a high State office. From every section of the State there have descended upon the General Assembly friends and partisans imbued with a single purpose—to win an additional vote or two for the candidate of their choice.

The feeling was prevalent last night that the caucus to name Judge Keith's successor cannot long be delayed. The caucus to nominate for uncontested judgeships took place at 8 o'clock last night, and the caucus to settle the nomination for the Supreme Court vacancy will probably be held next week. Until this matter is settled the General Assembly will be in a state of extreme unrset.

Campaign managers for Judge Frederick W. Sims have opened headquarters in Murphy's Hotel, and headquarters have also been established by friends of William Minor Lile. Emissaries from these offices, embracing old members of the Legislature, lawyers, politicians and others who claim to be mere personal friends have interviewed every members of the General Assembly that has so far reported for the present session. Practically every member, it is believed, has made up his mind how he will vote on the judgeship.

A leading Sims man said last night that the race was the closest he has ever witnessed, but that the Louisa candidate would win by a comfortable majority. The backers of Mr. Lile, on the other hand, made confident predictions that their candidate would be elected.

The possibility that Judge Edward S. Turner, of Warrenton, will be entered as a third candidate for the judgeship gave the Sims and Lile factions concern only to the extent that there was uncertainty as to how the Turner men would vote after their candidate was counted out. It was generally assumed that the Turner minority will split evenly between the two leading candidates. Thomas R. Keith, a kinsman of the present presiding justice of the Supreme Court, has also been suggested as a candidate but his chances are regarded as negigible.

RAT DOG OBEYS 'PHONE CALL.

Clayton, N. J., Jan. 14.—Isaac Pancoast, a retired farmer, is prouder than ever of the achievements of his famousratter, Tiny, since the dog has displayed a new kink in capturing rodents which has added to her fame in this section.

The dog insisted upon staying at the old farm when Pancoast and his family left some time ago, making visits back and forth between the town and country places. When her owner discovered a rat in the celler at his home here he rang up the farm on the telephone, had Tiny brought to the receiver, and called, "Rats, rats come home." The dog recognized her master's voice, quickly ran the mile from the farm to the town house and speedily dispatched the rodent.

YON PAPEN'S DOCUMENTS

Tell-Tale Stubs Found in His Possession

London, Jan. 15—The American Embassy is in possession of papers and check stubs which were seized by British, officials from Capt, Franz von Papen, German military attache, when he reached Falmouth.

It is understood that the documents will be sent to the State Department in Washington.

The papers and check stub are said to show that the former German military attache in the United States made large and frequent payments to persons who are charged with blowing up bridge and ammunition plants.

Payment of $700 was made by Captvon Papen to Werner Horn, according to the stubs. Horn was convicted of blowing up the Canadian Pacific bridge at St. Croix, Me.

The creck stubs show about 500 items. The checking account was with the Riggs National Bank at Washington, D. C.

Washington, Jan. 15—Washington officials are intensely interested in the disclosures about the bank books, check stubs and letters taken from Capt. Von Papen.

Count von Bernstorff the German Ambassador, returned to Washington lost evening but he had no comment to make.

If it can be shown from these records that the German Ambassador had knowledge of illegal and improper use of money by Capt. Von Papen it would present a serious situation.

It was pointed out, however, that Count Von Bernstorff has kept his record absolutely clear thus far and many in Washington were inclined to doubt whether the evidence would connect him directly with any improper activities by Von Papen.

KAISER'S CONDITION

Paris, Jan. 15—Kaiser Wilhelm, of Germany, will undergo another operation Sunday at the hands of an American surgeon, according to a Havas News Agency dispatch.

Conflicting statements as to the affliction of the Kaiser were made here today. Dr. Metchnikoff, declared that, when an operation was performed upon the Kaiser's throat three years ago, he was told by the German surgeon that there was no trace of cancer.

Dr. Leon Delair, inventor of the artificial larynx, says he was approached by the German Ambassador to France three years ago and asked if he could furnish the Kaiser with one of his inventions. Upon being asked the nature of the Kaiser's malady the Ambassador replied, "cancer."

Geneva, Jan. 15—It is said that the Kaiser has a high fever and is very weak, but continues to make public appearances in order to give the impression that he is not an extremely sick man.

BURNED HIS BRIDGE

Austrian General Exposed His Men With no Avenue of Escape

London, Jan. 15—In order to insure steadfastness on the part of his offensive, the Austrian general Bothmer, who commands the army which held the River Stripa, kept his men on the further bank by burning the bridges behind them, thus exposing them, without possibility of escape, to the terrifice Russian fire, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle.

He says that the fact that the Austrians do not reply by a fierce counter offensive is to be explained by the heavy losses, which amount in all to nearly 100,000 of whom over 10,000 are prisoners.

In his dispach the correspondent further says:

'The southern Russian front is quiet and may remain quiet for days to come. This does not mean that the Russians' offensive has been abandoned or has been in any sense a failure. What the Russians have done is to establish themselves firmly on he left bank of the Styr, dislodge the Austrians from the east bank of the middle Stripa and push their Bessarabian front up.

"A pause now is necessary because the warfare has become modernized on the Russian front. There is to be no more roving backward and forward. What is gained must be held."

JURY FINDS MORE INDICTMENTS

Thirty Found in Case of Herell in Prince William County

URGES HIS REMOVAL

Several Irregular Practices Called to Attention of Judge Thornton in Report Filed.

Manassas, Jan. 15.— The special grand jury which has been in session since December 8, investigating the clerk's office of Prince William county, yesterday returned twenty-two more indictments against Robert E. Herrell, the absconding deputy clerk, making a total of thirty in all against him. Fourteen more indictments against W. W. Garrison, making a total of fifteen, and eight more against H. C. Ryckman, making a total of nine, were also returned.

Capt. James E. Herrell, the clerk, who was indicted on several charges, Thursday, appeared in court and gave bond, for his appearance at the February term. Ryckman and Garrison were also bailed for their appearance next month. Robert Herrell has not yet been apprehended.

The grand jury also presented the following report to Judge J. B. T. Thornton:

"We, the grand jury, find from evidence of various witnesses that the present clerk of court, J. E. Herrell has been grossly degligent in his office duties; that the clerk's office has very frequently been closed during business hours, to the detriment and inconvenience of the general public having business to transact; that the general habits of the said J. E. Herrell, are such that on many occasions he has been so intoxicated that no business could be transacted with him; that on many occasions he was very profane and insulting to those legally entitled to his services. On these charges and others which could be recited, we respectfully recommend that he be removed from office at the earliest date consistent with proper legal procedure.

"We also respectfully beg to call attention of the court to the evidence of certain witnesses setting forth that the retiring chairman of the board of supervisors, J. T. Syncox, signed various warrants in blank, variously estimated, these signed blanks being separated from their stubs on which no memo was entered, said signatures being made after the board of supervisors had organized for the new year and his successor in office had bee nelected and presided over the first regular meeting of this board of supervisors. We recommend that such action as the law directs be taken with reference to this matter.

"We also respectfully represent that the sense of this jury is in favor of some competent attorney being employed to assist the Commonwealth's attroney in prosecuting these cases, and so recommend, we find page 64 of court order book No. 6, of the Court of Prince William county, on bottom of said page 64, what the jury believes to be a falsification of the court records in a certain entry for $27.50, purported to be a court order, which, in evidence, the jury finds said order to be a forgery, said order being entered thereon subsequent to the signing of the minutes by the judge. On evidence of certain witnesses, it appears that oaths have been administered, marriage licenses and letters of administration granted and wills probated and the clerk's name being affixed thereto by Miss Janie S. Herrell, an employe of the clerk's office, such employee not being legally employed to affix such signatures. To the danger of legal complications from such practice, we respectfully call attention of the court."

BETHEL CHAPEL BURNS

Structure in Cemetery Seriously Damaged This Morning From Overheated Stove

Between ten and eleven o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the chapel in Bethel Cemetery on Wilkes street, extended. A telephone call was sent to the station house, and the department was rushed to the scene. The flames, however, had gained such headway in the meantime, that they could not be arrested before the structure was badly damaged. The Chapel was insured for $500. The fire originated from an overheated stove. Bethel Cemetery was opened in 1885, and the chapel was constructed several years later. It will doubtless be rebuilt at once.

By the time the fire apparatus had been returned to the houses another alarm was sounded from Cameron street, between Fayette and Payne, A bed was burning in a house on the north side of the street, occupied by colored people. The fire was extinguished before much damage had resulted.

LET THE PRESIDENT HANDLE THE ISSUE.

The murder of American citizens by Mexican outlaws is no doubt exasperating, and it has naturally brought forth just resentment throughout the United States. But the fact that enemies of the present administration have mounted it as a hobby should cause every democrat to stop, look and listen. Are we to suppose that Theodore Roosevelt, restive at all times, and William Randolph Hearst are more patriotic than other citizens of this country when they urge immediate intervention in Mexico? The able American now in the White House and his capable cabinet understand the situation thoroughly, and it may be safely assumed that they will do the right thing as they have in other issues which have confronted the United States during the past few years.

Mr. Roosevelt calls attention to the fact that he ordered the invasion of Cuba when insurrectionists made it unsafe for Americans to dwell in that island. There is no parallel between the issue presented by Cuba and that of Mexico. Cuba was and is under the suzeranity of the United States and had at that time been wrested from Spain in order that the island might set up housekeeping in its own way. As is generally the case after a war for independence, confused conditions existed which had to be ironed out. The United States, after bringing order out of chaos, left the Cubans to govern themselves.

Mexico is an independent country, a sister republic, and this country has recognized the Carranza government. In a national point of view we have no more to do with the country's internal affairs than we have with those of England, France, Germany, or any other nation. When the powers that be guarantee they will do all in their power to avenge murders and render other satisfaction, it is but proper to give them time to make good their promises.

A few years ago Jews were being ill-treated in Russia, as they have been at times almost since the beginning of the Christian era. Subscriptions were made for their relief in the United States and protests sent to the Czar against the persecution of the Semites. He was called upon to arrest the perpetrators of these outrages and punish them. It will be remembered that Russia sent a gentle reminder that the government was able to manage its own internal affairs. This was a soft rebuke. Carranza should be given the same chance that was accorded the Czar.

Attempts were made in the Senate yesterday to make a breach between that body and the administration over Mexico. The President and his Cabinet met and decided to continue the administration policy and allow Carranza to punish the murderers of American citizens. There was, however, a break of indignation and demand for intervention. Senator Stone, chairman of the Foreign Relation Committee, pleaded with his colleagues to support the President. "For God's sake, give Carranza a chance," he cried in a speech on the floor.

WAR ADDS TO JUVENILE CRIME.

That war has increased juvenile crime in Germany was pointed out by Prof. Franz von Liszt, of Berlin University, one of the most distinguished criminologists and professors of law in German, in an address before the Society for the Reformation of Youthful Criminals. This opinion was substantiatrd through an inquiry recently instituted by the same society, it was brought out.

Professor Liszt, recommends as a remedy [illegible] by the military governor of [illegible] forbidding boys to visit saloons or moving pictures shows or to [illegible] streets during [illegible] and urchins.

The inquiry revealed [illegible] speaker shows that [illegible] crime is especially [illegible] between the ages of 12 and 16, the older boys showing a greater measure of self-control.

Some of the reports frankly attribute the increase in crime directly to the war. One writer, commenting on the reports, points out that apart from its direct influence in firing the spirit of adventure in the half-grown, the war has an indirect influence on boys left without control through the absence of their fathers in the field and their mothers in the workshops and also through the relaxing in school discipline because of male teachers going to the war and their places being taken by women.

The above brings to mind reminiscences of the war between the states. Shortly after the federal army took possession of Alexandria the population of the city doubled and with the influx came the dregs of some of the northern cities. Small-rry prizefighters, pickpockets, army leeches, adventurers, etc., together with large number of lewd women, made a descent upon the city. Stationary circuses, concert halls, free and easies and other forms of public amusement were in different section of the city, and the number of temptations to the young were great. There was but little attempt to enforce laws, especially those pertaining to morality, and there were many apt scholars in our midst. The fathers of some were in the Confederate army, and there were few restraints. But, considering the infection, but few of the younger generation became lost in the broad way to destruction.

GREAT SEA BATTLE IS IMMINENT.

According to the views of a British admiralty official, in New York, the Germans last month made several sorties, presumably to give to the German people the impression that the fleet was really going out to seek the British. He is of the opinion that as the food embargo draws yet closer and the condition of the civil population becomes desperate in the extreme, the fleet will have to make a dash and be engaged by the British. Then will occur the greatest sea battle in the world's history. The outcome of that battle will determine the war. Such is the certification given to a recent account of one who had gone over the German naval base at Heligoland and who pictured the Germans as having greatly augmented their navy and as being trained to a hair in readiness for the great battle that they know to be impending.

The British are said to have their forces thoroughly organized and to have made provision along the coast for hospitals and all other accessories for the mighty conflict when the vastest assemblage of ships that the world has seen or is ever likely to see again will present the most awful scene of battle that have ever awed mankind.

Thus the battles upon the land may prove to be but curtain-raisers for the vast and determinative battle upon the sea.

NO MILK FOR GERMAN BABIES.

France has declined "for military reasons," to permit shipments of condensed milk by charitable organizations in the United States to Germany and Austria-Hungary for use of the babies of those countries.

It is assumed that Great Britain will make a similar refusal and upon the same grounds—"for military reasons."

War brings many sorrows. Not only do those upon the battle field suffer, but innocent non-combattants are forced to take their chances in a fight for subsistence. Some months hence the fierce heat waves of summer, in peaceable times a great menace to the lives of little ones, will be felt in Europe. While fathers of thousands will be risking their lives for their country, their little ones at home will be languishing and pining away in the absence of sustentation. It was hoped that England and France would see a way to avoid war upon the cradle.

WHERE BRYANISM IS TENDING

(Norfolk Virginian Pilot)

Mr. Bryan perhaps doesn't see, and probably would not be deflected from his present course if he did see, that just so far as his flatulent oratory may wean democratic Congressmen from support of President Wilson's moderate plans for providing the country with means of defense, just so far is he aiding and abetting the schemes of that class of agitators who [illegible] demanding "preparedness" on a scale not justified by present or probable conditions. The creation and maintenance of a great standing army and of a navy greater than is requisite to guard our shores from invasion is repugnant to the sentiment and contrary to the sober judgment of a great majority of the American people. But to an overwhelming majority of them the creation of an excessive military establishment would be far preferable to leaving the country in its present state of practical helplessness against attack by any firstclass power. If Mr. Bryan succeeds in attracting to his banners a sufficient following to defeat the program of the Administration, he will have accomplished no more than to shift the issue and bring squarely before the nation the question "Shall we invite aggression or the humiliation of tame submission to wrong by refusing to provide means for successful resistance?" And when the issue shall be so presented, when the choice shall be forced between militarism as a bulwark against insult and injury, then there can be no rational doubt what the verdict will be. The moderates will in that case be irresistibly driven into the camp of the extremists and the triumph achieved by Mr. Bryan will consist in having transferred to Mr. Roosevelt the prestige of leadership and of making certain the expulsion of the democratic party from control of the government. Whatever in the political future may be matter for conjecture, one thing is beyond peradventure sure.: The people of the United States are neither going to renounce the dictates of manhood nor leave their birthrights at the mercy of whomsoever has the will to trespass on them merely to satisfy the morbid individual conscience of Mr. Bryan and his contingent of invertebrates.

Gen. Eulalio Gutierrez, formerly Provisional President of Mexico under Villa, is dead. He was executed at Pachuca, 120 miles north of Mexico City, on January 6, after having been found guilty of treason to the anti-Carranza party. The dispatch says that Gen Jose Rodriguez, Villa's chief aid, was shot soon after his capture with Almeida, The latter's execution was confirmed.

A secret movement has been launched in El Paso, Tex., for the organization of an expedition to invade Mexico. Thoroughly aroused over the continued killing of Americans by Mexican bandits a number of Americans living on the border have declared they will take affairs into their own hands. A petition calling for volunteers is being circulated. It was said that more than 1,500 signatures have already been secured.

The municipality of Berlin has taken the lead in the reduction of bread allowances which were ordered recently by the central authorities in order only to accumulate a reserve supply, 50 grams a week. The reduction is from 1,950 to 1,900 grams, which is equivalent to slightly more than four pounds. Supplementary cards for the working class with incomes up to 2,500 marks annually will call for only 350 grams a week instead of 500 grams.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Col. Francis Nelson Barksdale, advertising agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died in Philadelphia yesterday. Col. Barksdale was born March 19, 1855 at Charlottesville.

A 300-pound bear and two cubs weighing 75 pounds each, were killed yesterday in the Alleghany Mountains 15 miles west of Harrisonburg by B. A. Humel and Charles Mowbry, of Rawley Springs. The mother bear put up a stiff fight.

Bernard T. Janney, supervising principal of the Georgetown division of the District public schools, died last night. Mr. Janney was 72 years old. Death was due to a stroke of apolexy. Mr. Janney was born in Loudoun county, of Quaker parentage.

Ada Green, alias Ida Butts, the colored nurse, charged with attempting to murder Elizabeth Mason, the infant daughter of W. J. Mason of Norfolk, last August, by giving the child concentrated lye, was found guilty by a jury in the Corporation Court yesterday and her punishment fixed at twelve years in the penitentiary.

Tom Cox, colored, who threw a bottle on Christmas Eve at another negro and struck Carlton Pugh, a white youth on the head causing his death two days later, was convicted of involuntary manslaughter yesterday in the Circuit Court of Campbell county, at Rustburg and he was given a year in the Penitentiary.

Congressman Carter Glass has just bout decided not to make the race against the Junior Senator C. A. Swanson. He stated yesterday to a correspondent that Harry St. George Tucker had called on him to urge him to make the race, and that he had told Mr. Tucker he "did not see how he could make the race." This practically assures Senator Swanson a clear field for re-election, as it is not generally believed that Mr. Tucker, who has been discussed recently, will undertake the great task that would involve a race against the junior senator.

Wilson Allen and James West, negroes, made their escape from the Lancaster jail Thursday night. The heads of the bolts that secured the lock on the outer door were cut off on the outside, showing that outside parties assisted the prisoners in making their escape. Allen was serving a term for selling liquor, and West, who hails from Crisfield, Md., was awaiting trial for shooting another negro in an oyster shucking-house at Weems. They have not yet been apprehended.

Fire, which was discovered shortly after 12:30 o'clock this morning in the rear hall of the Whittet and Shepperson printing plant, located on Eighth Street, between Main and Franklin, Richmond, damaged the building, stock and presses to an amount approximating $5,000. For a brief period the situation seemed threatening, and all of the guests in Gilbert's Hotel were notified to get out of the building. Within twenty minutes after the first call was sent in the firemen had the blaze under complete control.

A bulldog sought to take shelter in the lower room of the Houston electric light and power plant and had comfortably bedded himself on some bags, where he was discovered by Mr. H. C. Newcomb, who operates the plant. When Newcomb attempted to drive the dog out he was viciously attacked by the brute. The dog ran at Mr. Newcomb and caught one of his hands in his mouth. In attempting to release that hand the dog caught the other and held them both fast. After a terrible wrestle Mr. Newcomb succeeded in getting the dog down with his knee on his throat chocked him off. He then got the dog by the neck and threw him out of the door into the canal, where he was drowned.

Reconstruction and extension of the Norfolk navy yard at a cost of millions of dollars so that it can be equipped to do all kinds of repair work, are involved in the Navy Department plans, according to the intimations and suggestions advanced by Admiral Stanford before the Naval Affairs Committee. These plans consist of building the giant $3,500,000 dry dock, the erection of new and modern equipped repair and machine shops, the purchase of 500 acres of additional land. Admiral Stanford has made no estimates of the cost of this work, but including the dry dock it will mean an expenditure of more than $6,000,000. Its also means that a great many more skilled mechanics will be employed by the Norfolk yard, increasing the payroll and the amount of money turned into the channels of trade in the Norfolk-Porsmouth territory.

NEW PAPAL ALLOCUTION

Pope Plans Important Address to Coming Consistery.

Rome, Jan. 15—There is a general belief in Vatican circles that the Pope will deliver another important allocution about war in the consistory at the end of February.

It is considered certain that the pontiff will call the consistory at the end of February or shortly afterward to impose red hats upon the newly created cardinals, Scapinelli and Fruhwrith, nuncios at Vienna and Munich, respectively, who would thus leave their posts, being replaced, according to present reports at Vienna, by Mgr. Locatelli, now internuncio at Buenos Aires, and at Munich by Mgr. Aversa, now internuncio for Brazil.

"The Holy See has done nothing either directly or indirectly to solicit from either group of belligerents an invitation to participate in or preside at a peace conference," says the Catholic organ, Coririere d'Itale, in an article evidently inspired by the Vatican.

If the Pope were present at a peace congress his adhesion to the treaty would bind the conscience of all Catholic subjects of the contracting nations, making it more difficult for any government to break the agreement.

The Pope, it asserts, does not count upon the European conflict for the solution of the Roman question, which as Cardinal Gasparri said, will not be settled by force of arms.

Theodore F. Shoemaker,

Upon the written application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and it appearing that the process has been issued and returned by the Sergeant of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, showing that the defendant was not found within the jurisdiction of this Court, the following order of publication is granted on this 8th day of September, 1915.

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree absolutely divorcing the complainant Sarah Estelle Shoemaker on the ground of desertion for a period of more than three years and for general relief, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Theodore F. Shoemaker is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear within 15 days after due publication of said order of publication, and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Va., and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the Corporation Court of the said City, on or before the next rule day after which this order is entered, and that a copy of said order of publication be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at Tacoma Park, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day. N. C 128
